Building A Strategic Board

Board best practices aren't just for newbies! Whether you're new to a board of directors or have served for years, this session is a great way to get a handle on what's expected, how board service looks different today compared to even just a decade ago, and map your personal board journey.

Lanton Lee

Mid-Central USA Area Director, Kiwanis International

Lanton is a visionary leader committed to growing and developing both the programs and people with whom he works. A presence with Kiwanis International since 2002, his role as Area Director can best be described as that of political strategist-meets-corporate trainer-meets governance expert. He travels throughout the Mid-Central region of the U.S., advising regional Kiwanis leadership on board governance best practices, strategies to enhance and strengthen membership, and effectively engage the community to improve the lives of children and youth. Lanton holds an MBA from the University of Cincinnati and a Bachelor of Business Administration degree from The Ohio State University.
