Almost Home Hosts Eighth Annual Youth Philanthropy Night

For the eighth year in a row, a favorite event of the Putnam County Community Foundation's Youth Philanthropy Committee is approaching! Almost Home Restaurant will host Youth Philanthropy Night on Thursday, March 8th from 5:00 to 9:00 P.M. Dining participants will enjoy a wonderful meal and the pleasure of having Youth Philanthropy Committee members assist servers for the evening. The event is a community favorite and completely fills the restaurant, so reserve your table today by calling Almost Home at 765-653-5788.

All tips and donations from the evening will go towards building the Putnam County Youth Philanthropy Endowment which provides some of the funding needed for the Committee's grant creating activities. Since its inception in 2006, the Youth Philanthropy Committee has provided over $30,000.00 in funding for over 60 youth-led projects in Putnam County. If you are unable to attend but still wish to support this effort, donations to the Youth Philanthropy Endowment may be made online, by mail or in the Community Foundation office at 2 South Jackson, Greencastle.

The Putnam County Youth Philanthropy Committee is comprised of students from each of the county's four high schools who exhibit leadership and a desire to serve. Members of the 2017-18 Youth Philanthropy Committee are Mason Allen, Gayle Baugh, Garrison Bock, Whitney Boswell, Ben Gellman, Eric Hinkle, Hannah Long, Jaxon Parmley, Lillian Rambis, Mary Timm, Rose White, Annika Whitlock and Ben Wilkerson.
